

PRAIRIE CAPITAL ADVISORS 2014 YEAR IN REVIEW

Prairie Capital Advisors, Inc. is pleased to share our 2014 highlights. Prairie advises middle-market companies in creating and executing customized ownership transition strategies across a wide range of industries.

During the last year, Prairie Capital Advisors has:

- Initiated nine M&A transactions
- Completed over 350 ESOP Advisory engagements (including ESOP Valuation Updates, Terminations, Fairness Opinions and Sustainability Studies)
- Served clients across the country representing a variety of industries. These included: construction, real estate, defense contracting, engineering, craft beer, food brokerage, food service, retail grocery, healthcare, professional services, public relations/marketing, technology/software, manufacturing, metal bending, trucking and retail furniture
- Added seven new employees at various levels and locations within the organization. The expansion of our team will allow the firm to continue to broaden our reach to prospective ownership transition clients while maintaining optimal relationships with existing clients

“We have a lot to be proud of as we end another year and look ahead to 2015,” said Ken Serwinski, CEO at Prairie Capital Advisors. “We’re excited to have added so many bright people who exude our core values. Hiring strong talent is critical to execute our expansion strategy and continue to serve our valued clients.”
